Annotations & Markups Placemat

Where Are the Tools?

Most of the markup and annotation tools can be found by clicking Comment:

Or, you can place them in your toolbar by clicking on the gear icon in the toolbar:

- 1) Under Comment, expand Annotations & Drawing Markups,
- 2) Select tools you want (hold  $\mathbb{A}$  to select multiples),
- 3) Press  button, then OK.

Tools should appear in toolbar.

What Are the Tools?

Annotation

Drawing Markups

How Do I Use the Tools?

Generally speaking, you simply need to click the tool's button, place your mouse where you would like the tool to be, then either click once or click/drag (depending on tool's purpose).

To Add a Pop-up Note:

Either double-click on the annotation or markup OR right-click and select Open Pop-up Note.

To Add Bookmarks:

Click the Bookmark icon on the left sidebar to open panel, navigate to the page to bookmark, press the New Bookmark button, name the new bookmark.

Helpful Shortcuts:

- $\mathbb{A}$  + B = Add Bookmark
- $\mathbb{A}$  + E = Edit Properties

To Add Multimedia:

Click Tools, Content, & Multimedia, then choose either Video or Sound:

Go to the document and click/drag where you want the multimedia placed. Then:

- 1) Choose the file,
- 2) Select Show Adv'd Options
- 3) Choose Play Content in Floating Window and OK
